

Nebraska USBC Women's Tournament

Championship Tournament Participation Application

The Nebraska USBC recognizes Nebraska USBC women bowlers who have bowled in 20 or more of our annual state tournaments. Please complete this application after you have completed 15 or more years of participation. You only need to fill it out once. The committee will establish your record once received and keep a record of your years of participation. Please let us know if you have a name change and/or address after your application is received.

Following is a list of Championship Tournament years with locations. Please indicate with a check mark after each tournament in which you bowled a minimum of three games. The years need not be consecutive. This form must be received by January 1 to be eligible for an award in that year's tournament.

If you bowled with a different name in any tournament than your current name, please write the name by that tournament location. You may be asked for your social security number is needed to properly identify bowlers with similar or like names.

Years 1937 thru 1960 and/or 2020-2025: If you bowled in any of these years, please list them below or on a separate sheet of paper.
